ELECTS ITS OFFICERS TO-NIGHT'S CONCERT POSTMASTER YERXA RUN DOWN BY CARS

Annual Meeting of First Congregational Church Shows Good Conditions.

At an adjourned meeting of the Congregational church held on Wednesday evening last, the following officers were elected: Mr. J. C. Dixon, clerk; Mr. H. J. Irwin, Mr. C. W. Jones and Mr. R. J. Mackerras, trustees; Mr. Chas. Kersting, treasurer; Mr. A. S. Mead, S. S. superintendent; Mr. V. L. Graham was re-elected deacon, and Mr. E. N. Mead was elected deacon, thus increasing the number to four; Miss Lottie Humphries, organist; Miss Alta Rice, assistant organist; Miss Gertrude Cook, Prof. W. W. Coates and Miss Hazel Hill, music committee; Messrs. S. R. G. Twycross, J. C. Dixon, J. J. Graham and Andrew Ferguson, ushers, Mr. M. W. Copps, auditor; Mr. Andrew Ferguson, chairman of decoration committee; Messrs. Convers Twycross, Fred Peterson, Nelson Dillworth were also elected as ushers for the evening service. The summary of the reports read by the clerk showed that twenty-nine members were added to the church during the past year, that upwards of two thousand dollars was raised for all purposes, one hundred and eighty-six dollars being given for benevolences, and that various funds of the church have balances amounting to over two hundred dollars.

At the close of the business session a pleasant social time was enjoyed, and refreshments were served by the Ladies' Aid Society.

The meeting was largely attended, and it was felt that the present year opens with every expectation of increased usefulness for the church. The board of trustees have been instructed to take into consideration the enlargement of the church building, so as to provide proper facilities for the various departments of work, and especially for the pressing needs of the Sunday School.

SMALLPOX REPORTED.

But Effective Quarantine Measures Enforced to Protect This City.

Three cases of smallpox were recently reported within a short distance of Sierra Madre; one at Sierra Madre Villa, one at the Hastings ranch and the other at the Chapman ranch. The county health officials have reported to Dr. T. J. Coffey, health officer of Sierra Madre, that these cases have been effectually quarantined. There is absolutely no cause for alarm as matters stand now, but the officials believe "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." The matter has been brought before the school trustees and the board of trustees of this city, and proper precautions have been taken to prevent the spread of contagion to any of Sierra Madre's inhabitants.

Seiling-Trowbridge Recital To-Night of Interest to Music Lovers.

Music lovers in this city are anticipating with pleasure the recital to be given to-night in the Town Hall, under the auspices of the Ladies' Musical club, which will introduce to a local audience Herr Oskar B. Seiling, violinist, and Miss Carrie A. Trowbridge, pianist, both members of the faculty of the University of Southern California, and well spoken of as leaders in their respective lines.

The Ladies' Musical club met at the home of Mrs. Laura H. Stevenson on Laurel avenue last Monday afternoon and an excellent "Mozart and Haydn" program was given under the direction of Miss Elsie Caskey. These parlor meetings are proving very interesting from a social as well as an artistic standpoint.

After the program was rendered, an hour was given over to choral work under the leadership of Miss Climie. Now that the days are lengthening, thereby giving more time for it, it is hoped this work may prove one of the most valuable to the club.

A paper by Miss Morgan was especially interesting, and a synopsis is here given:

"Francis Joseph Haydn was born March 31, 1832, at Rohran, a village near Vienna. His father was a wheelwright and Sexton of the parish, and possessed a fine tenor voice. His mother, too, sang well, so on Sundays and festal days the couple added to their earnings and amused themselves by their music.

"Francis Joseph wished to take part in these parts when he was five years old. He was allowed to and did it in a very original manner. He took a piece of wood for a violin and a stick for a bow. The accuracy with which the young boy marked time attracted the attention of a relative named Frank, who was a school master at Hamburg and a good musician. He was so interested in the little fellow that he took him to live with him and taught him to read, write, sing, play on the violin and other instruments. Haydn was a diligent pupil and after he had studied three years with his cousin, Von Reuter, the chapel master and director of music at the cathedral of St. Etienne in Vienna, in making a call on Frank, asked to have young Haydn brought in to play for him. He was so pleased with the boy that he took him to Vienna and placed him in the boy's choir of St. Stephens church.

"He was eager to learn, but he could not go to school or get books without money, so he adopted this scheme: His wardrobe was rather scanty, so he wrote to his father for money to replenish it. He received six florins, but instead of spending it for clothes he bought books. Shortly after he had written his first quartette he composed

Cabot Yerxa Appointed to Local Office, Vice W. T. Gregory, Resigned.

The appointment of Mr. Cabot Yerxa to be postmaster at Sierra Madre was confirmed by the United States senate this week, and he will assume his duties probably about the first of the month. Mr. Yerxa is a well-known, energetic and popular young business man, one of the members of the firm of Yerxa Bros., and will fill the office with credit.

Mr. W. T. Gregory, the retiring postmaster, sent in his resignation last November, with a recommendation for Mr. Yerxa's appointment as his successor. Mr. Gregory has been in the public service ever since the Spanish-American war, in which he was a member of the famous regiment of Rough Riders. His resignation was sent in to secure a rest from the close confinement of the office. After his retirement he will go East to visit a brother. Later he will again enter the public service in another capacity. During the last year the business of the office has doubled in volume and indications point to a rapid growth in the future. Mr. Gregory's many friends will regret to learn of his resignation.

"Haydn often wandered about the streets at night serenading his friends with his own compositions. One night he happened to stop under the window of Bernardino Kurtz. When he had finished Kurtz rushed to the window and inquired, 'Who is there?' Haydn answered, 'Francis Joseph Haydn.' 'Whose music is it?' 'Mine.' 'The deuce it is, and at your age? Well, well, all have to begin at something.'

"Kurtz led him up stairs and asked him to compose some music for the piece he was acting then, 'The Devil on Two Sticks.' Haydn did so and was well paid by the elated Kurtz.

"In 1791 he was sent the diploma of 'Doctor of Music,' a distinction which even Handel failed to have, mainly because he did not care to pay the fine attached. When urged to accept he said, 'Vot te tevil I trow my money away for dat vich de blockhead vish? I no vant.'

"Haydn lived to the ripe old age of seventy-seven years, beloved and esteemed not only by his own countrymen, but by musicians throughout Europe.

"He was a very prolific composer, having written 118 symphonies, nineteen operas, five oratorios and a large number of songs and other pieces.

"Mozart was a great friend of Haydn and admired his work and equally strong was Haydn's fondness for Mozart. It is said that in a way Haydn paved the way for Mozart and Beethoven.

Woman Killed by Electric Train at Baldwin Avenue Crossing, Santa Anita.

While Miss Mary Bosbyshell, of Monrovia, was crossing the track at Baldwin avenue, Santa Anita, at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon she apparently did not notice the approach of a train of three electric cars, heavily loaded with passengers, on their way to the race track. The motorman is said to have blown the whistle continually, and S. R. Chatfield, the gatekeeper at Baldwin's ranch, who saw her peril, called to her, but she was apparently deeply absorbed in thought and did not heed the warning. The entire train passed over her body, grinding it to pieces.

Miss Bosbyshell came to Monrovia four years ago, and was widely known for her charitable work, especially in behalf of the colored race. She was an accomplished musician and active in church work.

LEAVES NEAT ESTATE.

Final Settlement of Estate of Orville G. Hamilton Shows $2,666.46.

The public administrator of Los Angeles county reported a few days ago the final settlement of the estate of Orville G. Hamilton, amounting to $2,666.46. Mr. Hamilton was employed at the Sierra Madre sanatorium, and was found on July 4th, 1907, in a clump of bushes adjoining the Hastings ranch, suffering from a bullet wound in the breast. Investigation proved that he had been struck by a stray bullet, and he died shortly after. Letters found on his person and in his trunk gave Public Administrator Frank Bryson a clue to the next kin, and he communicated with Mr. Hamilton's sister, Mrs. Emeline E. Carlick of Cleveland, N. Y. The estate consisted of all cash in the bank and was a windfall for the sister, as her brother had been working on wages for years and had never been known to have accumulated much.

Now that oranges are ripening, considerable annoyance is being experienced by our fruit growers, especially those near the railroad, by the acts of some excursionists who feel that an orchard is a free-for-all sort of place. On Christmas and New Year's day, parties with baskets and lunch boxes were caught in the act of stealing oranges and lemons, and it was only by threatening to "hand them a lemon" in the way of prosecution that they were made to desist. An example made of a few of these pilferers would soon put a stop to this misdemeanor, and it is hoped somebody will take the initiative.

ALASKA-YUKON SHOW.

Promotion Committee Wants Typical Exhibit From California.

The California Promotion committee has sent the following letter to commercial organizations of the state:

"The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition will be held in Seattle, Washington, during the summer of 1909, and California is much interested in its success.

"The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition will give California an opportunity to properly present its vast resources and its claim to the Alaskan trade, as well as to exploit same among the vast number of strangers from all parts of the world who will visit the exposition.

"The committee is strongly of the opinion that California's representation should be on such lines as to attract the attention of visitors to the exposition to a greater degree than has ever been the case before. In order to accomplish this stereotyped and obsolete methods should not be employed, but rather new and fertile ideas should prevail. Fruit in glass jars—prune knights and walnut elephants—have served their purpose, and that California's exhibit at Seattle should be on different lines from those employed in previous exhibits, if for no other reason than to show that California people are not a people with one idea.

"The committee advocates that a building typically Californian be erected in Seattle, in which building all the people of the state will have recognition.
There should be on exhibition in this building, all things possible that go to make up California life—works by the best California painters, sculptors and writers, going back to the earliest history of California and leading up to the present day; picturesque scenes of California's scenic beauties, as well as scenes of California's industrial life;
in fact, a complete word and picture scene of this state, accessible to all comers. In addition to this, a lecture hall of good proportions, where lectures on California will be constantly given by men competent to talk, the lectures illustrated by stereopticon views of the highest order. Then the building should be so arranged that it would be useful for large receptions and gatherings. It is notable that at other expositions the state buildings where the main feature was receptions were the most popular. In this connection, one has but to look back upon the San Francisco building in St. Louis at the time of the exposition, and from it learn a lesson as to the lines on which a state or city may be properly represented.

"I should be glad to hear from you on this subject, and to learn what action is taken by your organization in the way organization in the way of following the suggestions made."

"Cordially yours,
—Rufus P. Jennings, Chairman."

Miss Mabel Hoffman Will Form Classes in This City.

Childrens' and adult classes will be formed. All interested parties may call at the school building at 2 o'clock on Tuesday and talk the matter over with Miss Hoffman.

Miss Hoffman is a graduate of the Cumnock school in Los Angeles; also of the oratory department of the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill.

WOOD DISAPPEARS.

Nocturnal Visitors Evidently Have a Wood Stove.

The proverbial "nigger in the wood pile" has been making his presence felt in Dr. E. G. Howard's woodshed lately. For several nights past his wood pile has been decreasing rapidly in size, it is said, and the doctor and members of his family have been alarmed upon several occasions by prowlers about his place. Marshal Caley will doubtless display his well known detective abilities, and bag the game before heroic measures are taken in the way of a shotgun or bear trap.

Having disposed of the Feed and Fuel business conducted under the name of Mead & Gill, I would appreciate all those owing accounts for feed and fuel to call and settle for the same.

Negotiations were completed during the past week whereby S. R. Norris of acquired the business of Gogin Bros.

a grocery and meat market business in the Kersting building.

Mr. Norris has moved the stock to his large his present store room facilities.

For a time the stock will be crowded into the present store building.

Gogin Bros. & Richey have done a good business for some months since opening, and have made many friends who will regret to see them retire from the field.

HORSE TAKES FRIGHT.

Two Ladies Thrown From Carriage and Hurt.

While Mrs. Howard Sebree, mother of Mr. Charles Sebree, and Mrs. Carn were driving on Central avenue, near Canon avenue Tuesday afternoon, their horse was frightened by some object at the side of the road and suddenly veer-ing, threw both ladies from the carriage.
Mrs. Sebree sustained painful bruises and is prostrated from the shock, though no very serious consequences are anticipated. Mrs. Carn escaped serious injury.

The horse was caught by Mr. Robinson of Yerxa Bros., and the ladies were taken to their home.

CHANCE FOR SPORT.

Coyotes Said to Be Raiding Chicken
Coops Without Obtaining License.

Now would be an opportune time for the boys of the town to get out their traps and lay for the cunning wildcat and coyote, as numerous complaints are heard of the disappearance of chickens from barnyards. One man reports having seen a couple of coyotes scurrying through his orchard. The recent snows in the mountains have no doubt driven these animals closer to the washes and foothills.
